Jim Bouchard

Keynote Speaker at Bass Hall in Fort Worth on November 29, 2012

Jim is the no BS speaker you've been looking for to get you and your organization through the tough times. He speaks authentically from his transformation from dropout and drug abuser to Black Belt and successful professional.

Poverty, layoffs, failure, suicide, near homelessness and crippling self-doubt...all part of Jim's experience. He pulls no punches; he teaches you how to strap on your belt, get in the fight and overcome any personal or professional challenge.

His compassion, enthusiasm and positive energy shines when he says from the heart, "If I can do it, so can you."

Martial arts transformed Jim's self-perception from former drug abuser and failure to successful entrepreneur and Black Belt. As a speaker and author of Amazon bestseller Think Like a Black Belt, Jim tours nationally presenting his philosophy of Black Belt Mindset for corporate and conference audiences. He's a regular guest on TV and radio programs including FOX News, BBC Worldview and FOX Across America.

"Thank you Jim for an outstanding presentation to the CEO Club of Boston! One of our long time Members said it was the best presentation he has ever seen at the CEO Club! That says it all!" ~Fred Green, President & Founder, CEO Club of Boston
